"Roaring Bill" With Wichita Team Again This Season.

Isbell Thinks His Wolves Have Pennant Chance.

Wichita, Kan., April 4.—Frank Isbell, new manager of the Wichita team of the Western league, expects to build a pennant-contending machine from the seven veterans and thirteen "youngsters" who have survived out of the thirty-two players who opened the spring training season here two weeks ago. Isbell has looked them over carefully and has given it out as his opinion that his team should finish with a standing at least as high as fourth and probably higher.

The Wichita team will have a number of veterans as its nucleus. They are Tex Jones, first baseman, secured from Des Moines; Gus Helting, third baseman last year; Bill Rapps, utility man last season; and Bob Clemens, Earl Baker, Gil Davis and A. Koestner, pitchers, all of whom have performed previously in the Western circuit.

Isbell is pinning his hopes somewhat on the ability of three other pitchers to make good. They are Lyons and Norman, recruits from the Chicago White Sox, and Freeman, semi-pro, others trying out are Washburn, a Topeka first sacker; Harvey, an out-

Emmett Will Have Baseball Team Again This Season.

Emmett, Kan., April 5.—At a meeting of local boosters it was decided to keep the Emmett Willards on the baseball map again this season and a subscription of $175 has already been taken up to equip the team. August Sakralda has been chosen manager and Leo Glenn captain of the team. The Emmett Willards have built up a great reputation thruout the entire state and have played some of the fastest amateur games ever seen in Kansas. It is the ambition of the backers of this year's team to make the team better than it ever has been.

Morris Wins From Fulton.

New York, April 5.—Carl Morris, of Oklahoma, was awarded the decision over Fred Fulton, of Minnesota, in the fifth round of a bout here, after Referee Bill Brown had announced Fulton struck Morris a foul blow, sending him helpless to the floor.

Michigan Suspends All Sports.
Ann Arbor, Mich., April 5.—All intercollegiate athletic contests on the schedule of the University of Michigan have been ordered suspended by the board of control in athletics.

Big Minors Determined to Quit National Association.

No Objection Expected on Part of Major League Men.

BY JACK VELOCK.

New York, April 5.—O. W. Wathen, president of the Louisville American Association club and vice-president of the league, expressed the sentiment of the three big minor leagues recently when he said plans are being made for a withdrawal from the National Association by Class AA leagues.

For a number of years the three big minor leagues—the International, Pacific Coast and the American Association—have been the minority faction in the national organization. They managed to secure a resolution on the part of the association asking for a change in the draft rules, and the support the move received was a real surprise.

Are Not Satisfied.

But the three big minors are not satisfied. They feel that they should be permitted to withdraw as active members of the National Association. They would like to be recognized as a third party to the national agreement, for they feel that the affairs of their leagues are of no vital interest to the smaller minors and they believe they could conduct their business to a much better advantage on the outside.

President Edward Barrow of the International league has admitted that such a plan is on foot, and he intimates that it will be brought up at the next meeting of the National association.

cation, which is to be held in Louisville next November.

The plan being worked out by the big minors is expected to receive the support of the national commission, for it will in no way interfere with the smaller minors, and it will not affect the major leagues in any way.

Class of Their Own.

Class AA owners feel they should be set apart from the smaller leagues, because they are in a distinct class by themselves. Furthermore, the vast amount of business in which the many small leagues are interested has little or no interest for AA owners, except in a very few cases where there is a controversy over players. Many of these cases are thrashed out between the owners themselves.

The new move of the big minors is in no way an attempt to cut loose from the protecting wing of organized baseball. They merely feel that they, as a distinct branch of the national game, should be permitted to form an organization of their own and operate under the laws of organized baseball in the same manner as the National association does at present.

WON'T MEET MORRIS

That Is, Not Until Show Season Is Over, Willard Says.

Chicago, April 5.—"I'll take another look at Carl Morris five months hence and see how he looks then before deciding whether to give him a chance at the heavyweight championship."

This was the opinion of Jess Willard today, as he made preparations for a trip to Norfolk, Va., where he will join a wild west show.

Asked whether he believed Morris's fight with Fulton at New York Wednesday night was sufficient to qualify him for a crack at the title, Willard said:

"I don't think Morris's showing ought to give him a fight with me at this time. Anyway, my show contract is for about five months and I can't do anything until it expires. After that I'll take another look at Morris. He'll probably have a few more fights in the meantime. Let's see how he looks then."

Willard said he would start east tomorrow.

He received his first citizenship papers from the circuit court of Cook county. Darcy gave his age as 21 years and his occupation as a blacksmith and professional athlete.

EVEREADY
paid $12,000.00 for this name

Four People Receive $3,000 Each

In our announcement last fall of the Eveready Contest for a better name than "Flashlight," we stated that if "two or more contestants submit the word selected the full amount of the prize will be paid to each."

We have made our selection without regard to the number of duplications. The word chosen was submitted by the four following contestants, to each of whom we are paying $3,000.00:

Mrs. F. C. Grow, 1219 Second Street, N. E., Watertown, S. D.; Katherine W. Hand, 1501 Mulvane Street, Topeka, Kansas; Miss J. M. Schulz, 239 Second Street, Union Hill, N. J.; Bertha A. Wilson, 413 Park Avenue, Medina, N. Y.

The prize-winning word is Daylo. It fulfills in a masterly way the requirements specified, viz.: a coined word that we can register as a trade-mark and a name easy to remember and entirely simple to pronounce.

The true significance, the living ideal of the reliability and service characteristic of our product will hereafter find its expression in the new name, Eveready Daylo.

I wish I might personally thank each of the half million contestants and the millions of Eveready friends and users who have contributed so earnestly to the success of our search for a new name.

Sincerely,

CONRAD HUBERT,
Vice-President.
